

WAYNE BOEHLE, ESQ.

Mediator • Arbitrator

Wayne Boehle, Esq. draws upon nearly 50 years of litigation experience in his work as a mediator. As someone with a love for competitive sports, Mr. Boehle applies that same tenacity to his mediation philosophy. He is a “people person,” who enjoys the challenges of working with counsel and clients, and appreciates the complex and oftentimes conflicting perspectives involved in cases. His relentless nature and ability to engage with clients to best understand their needs, allow him to work diligently with parties toward achieving an equitable resolution.

ADR EXPERIENCE

From the time Mr. Boehle passed the bar in 1971, he has become a well-respected litigation attorney, trial lawyer, and mediator. Mr. Boehle recognizes the multitude of risks related to going to trial and the importance of getting the most out of a mediation. He is known by his peers as a “quick study,” immediately focusing in on key issues in order to efficiently and effectively resolve matters. He has the ability to swiftly value a case and provide parties with the full picture, so that they are better able to make informed decisions regarding settlement and reduce the variable risks of trial. Favored by both Plaintiffs and Defendants for mediations, Mr. Boehle has been successful in resolving a variety of personal injury, insurance, real estate, product liability, employment, and business and commercial disputes.
