Ethics: Recent Developments and Hot Topics in 2023 and Beyond

Glenn Barger, Esq.
Mayra Fornos, Esq.
Pat Kelly, Esq.

2 Hours Legal Ethics Credit

This MCLE webinar on Ethics is being presented by Glenn Barger, Mayra Fornos and Pat Kelly. These sought-after experienced mediators will summarize current case law and State Bar decisions as well as revisions to some of the Ethics rules for 2022 & 2023. Also included is a review of some of the more significant recent State Bar decisions that every practicing attorney needs to know.

Topics will include: 1) new State Bar rules and requirements regarding the pivotal “Client Trust Account Protection Program” (CTAPP); 2) fee-splitting issues and governing mandates; 3) ethical requirements and rules at Mediations and at Mandatory Settlement Conferences for both attorneys and mediators, covering the duty of candor, mediation settlement discussion privileges, and the essentials for binding the parties to a settlement. This presentation will also dissect the status of the further integration of non-lawyers into the legal landscape, their practicing of the law, and the unfolding developments relating to the proposals involving ownership of law firms by non-lawyers.

3:45 p.m. - 4:45 p.m.

How to Identify and Overcome your Implicit Biases

Wayne Boehle, Esq.
Ana Sambold, Esq.

1 Hour Elimination of Bias with
Focus on Implicit Bias Credit

New

Everyone possesses implicit biases. Those implicit biases develop unconsciously during the course of your lifetime and highly affect your beliefs, attitudes, and actions towards other people.

Join us for this program and gain invaluable insight into your own personal implicit biases (yes, we ALL have them). ADR Services, Inc. neutrals, Ana Sambold and Wayne Boehle will further your understanding of implicit biases, explore how implicit biases impact your decisions and actions, and provide actionable steps to recognize these biases and manage them.

5:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m.

Do's and Don'ts In Mediation & Settlement Conferences

Hon. Angela Bradstreet (Ret.)
Hon. James McBride (Ret.)

1 Hour General Credit

Real world advice on settlement and mediation, and the ethical issues that may be presented. Two of ADR Services, Inc.'s top neutrals share practical input on real issues that arise and how to navigate them while moving forward to successful resolution.
