THE NEW FACE OF EMPLOYMENT LITIGATION

2023 and Beyond

JUSTICE REBECCA A. WISEMAN (Ret.), Program Chair

The Rutter Group and California Judges Association will present their webcast webinar series The New Face of Employment Litigation: 2023 and Beyond on March 6-10, 2023. You will hear from an all-star faculty of experienced California justices and attorneys who will explore cutting edge employment law issues in the post-pandemic workplace.

Hear top employment attorneys share unique insights into some of the biggest employment law cases and trials of this decade. Panels will cover sexual harassment in the remote workplace, insights into new rules affecting arbitration à la Viking River Cruises v. Moriana, employee activism in the workplace, and much more.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

PART I: Monday, March 6, 2023

Sexual Harassment in the Remote Workplace

- Sexually suggestive emails and messaging
- Inappropriate backgrounds during videoconferencing
- Video chats with sexual overtones
- How to preserve/present supporting evidence
- Tips for employers on how to address claims of remote sexual harassment

PART II: Tuesday, March 7, 2023

Employee Activism – Does Anything Cross the Line?

- Employee activism defined
- The role of social media in the workplace
- Ways for employees to make their voices heard without losing their job
- How employers can (and should) respond to employees' social and political concerns

PART III: Wednesday, March 8, 2023

Cutting Edge Employment Cases – A Strategic Overview

- Strategic insight into groundbreaking employment cases
- How to handle the unexpected with aplomb
- Successful techniques for winning your case
- Dealing with media in high profile cases

PART IV: Thursday, March 9, 2023

Viking River Cruises v. Moriana and PAGA

- Ways to successfully mediate PAGA and class claims post-Viking River Cruises
- How to draft arbitration provisions
- Practical considerations and strategies for mediating PAGA claims

PART V: Friday, March 10, 2023

A Tale of Two [Attorney's] Fees

- Limitations on fees – mixed results and arbitration agreements
- Applying or challenging the lodestar method – how to 1) justify and prove up, and 2) effectively contest fee requests
- Contingent risk multiples – are they really discretionary?
